

Consequences

A follow up to Big Bounty

Characters:

Chloe: The physically blessed if unlucky social outlier returns fresh from her latest misadventure!

Dal: This fierce alien is a career criminal and erstwhile lover of our heroine.

Minnie: Chloe's robotic assistant always quick to point out the obvious.

Ren: This 300 pound alien beast is Dal's protégé; he makes his debut with a very special mission.

Opening: Desperate Times

BEEP...BEEP...BEEP...“sizzle sizzle”...BEEP...BEEP ... Chloe slowly rolled over onto her back as she lazily reached out with a shiny lotion covered hand to silence the obnoxious alarm on Minny, her autonomous flying robotic personal assistant, that was wailing away to inform her that if she didn't turn over soon, she would start to burn. After telling Minny, to reset the timer, she grabbed a small brown bottle and began to squeeze its contents into her right hand. Then starting with the tops of her feet she gradually and carefully ran her hands in slow circles up her legs and all across her thick tone thighs. She then moved further up towards her stomach and hips, eventually working her way up to her large round breasts, swirling her petite hands around each firm bosom several times. Once she had applied an even layer across each arm plus her face and neck, she quickly worked her way back down to her feet, just to make sure she didn't miss a single spot. Chloe then laid back, closed her eyes, and waited for the alarm to ruin her restful peace once again. She was a sight that any man would pay to see. Her perfect naked body glistened in the mid afternoon sun as she reclined on her trusty old lawn chair. Which looked oddly out of place propped on top of one of her ships main wings, directly in the warm sunlight. Chloe grinned to herself as she realized the irony of the fact that she got more use out of that lawn chair than 90% of the people that actually owned a lawn. She couldn't even remember where she got it from.

Chloe pretended that she had a small cute house and little green lawn to herself. Just a quaint place to call home and relax from time to time, but deep down, she knew that this life suited her much better. Her ship was her home. Even though it didn't have a porch or private pool, she could take it with her anywhere she went and after all, what other kind of home can you fly around in until you find a perfectly secluded area to sun bathe in without having to worry about peeping toms. Chloe worked far too hard on her curvy figure to ruin it by developing a bad tan line by wearing a bikini. Besides, she hadn't landed a decent job in over three months. It was amazing how much enjoyment she could find in simple activities that didn't cost money.

10 minutes later...“Chloe, you're looking a little pink! ...is that mole cancerous!?”

“Okay Minny...I get it, time to go in.” Chloe muttered. She sleepily stood up and wrapped herself in her towel, then quickly skipped across the burning hot surface of the wing into the ship as the little robot aimlessly floated after her. She wouldn't easily admit it, but Chloe was glad that the A.I. in Minny seemed to have a peculiarly snarky yet genuinely honest sense of humor. Chloe had few true friends and spent much of her time alone. So even though she would never match the companionship of another human being, Minny was the closest thing to a partner that Chloe had.

After cleaning up, Chloe plopped into the chair at the head of the ship. Minny floated over and began displaying random messages in Chloe's inbox that she had been purposefully avoiding. Most of them were bill collectors and many of them were not the type to collect their debts in the most friendly or legal ways.

"Not now Minny..." snapped Chloe.

"...but Chloe...this one has lots of nasty words in it, he sounds angry...maybe if you send him a picture of your big boobs he will leave you alone. I can take a picture right now!"

Chloe smiled and sternly explained, "Minny, that would probably just make things worse ...I don't have the money, so he won't be getting any friendlier until I do. Don't worry; I'm working on it. Now leave me alone or I'll stuff you in a smelly old bag"

Chloe sounded confident, but truthfully she was desperate and the decision she was about to make was all the evidence needed to confirm her predicament. Chloe brought up her vid-comm and dialed a number she had previously expected to never use. Then she waited, somewhat hoping that nobody would answer, but partially to her delight and partially to her dread...a familiar face appeared.

It was Dal-Sython aka The Black Devil, the most wanted and powerful crime boss in the galaxy. "Ahhh...Chloe, I wondered when you would call. You look as beautiful as I remember...except I seem to remember you having less clothing on."

Chloe was not in the mood to play his little games. She responded flatly, "Hello Dal, I need a job."

"I know... times are tough aren't they. If only you could capture a notorious bounty with a huge reward. That would certainly line your pockets." Dal was cheekily referencing the time several months prior when Chloe had actually managed to capture him. His bounty would have made her rich for life, but he managed to escape due to some, "unique" skills.

Still not willing to play along, Chloe calmly responded again. "Dal, do you have anything or not?"

"Well, you're definitely not as fun as I remember, but I'm sure I have something for you. I'll send you an encrypted message. Just show up at the stated time and place. Someone will meet you there."

"Thank you Dal." Chloe quickly closed the vid-comm and quietly sat in her chair for several minutes, trying to decide if she had made a wise choice. Ultimately, there was only one way to find out.

Minny had a skill for breaking awkward silences, "...see...he likes your boobs..."

Chloe snorted with a giggle before she threw her damp towel on Minny and happily watched the little flying robot spastically spin in circles trying to free itself from the treacherous trap.

Change of Plans

A few hours after speaking with Chloe, Dal heard a knock on his private office door. He told the visitor to enter having already guessed who it would most likely be. It was Ren, one of Dal's most trusted and effective personnel "assets". Ren was returning to report from his latest mission. Dal was pleased to hear that it had been successful, not that he had any doubt. When something needed to be done, and needed to be done right the first time and it involved violence. Ren was the one Dal entrusted the job too every time. After reporting, Dal asked Ren to take a seat and wait while he considered his next mission.

Ren was a rare alien breed in general, but even more rare in this region of the galaxy. Thousands of years of evolution had culminated to serve Ren very well. His species has rarely known a time of peace, yet their primitive nature and society often pitted them against foes that far exceeded them in technological might. That fact is a blessing and a curse. Their constant war and archaic warrior nature has quelled their numbers but also developed the foundation of their strength. As a result, their bodies naturally adapted into the perfect organic machine. They either evolved or they died, and often the males of the species would “cull the heard” of any youth that appeared weak or handicapped in order to ensure that only the fittest could propagate. Weapons that could easily kill most aliens in the galaxy often became little more than a nuisance when aimed at Ren in the heat of battle. He was large and powerful, weighing well over 300 lbs of pure muscle, but he hid his size and strength well due to his incredibly dense muscular body type. Power and durability was vital, but gratuitous size and mass made for too large of a target. Therefore, despite being 3 times as strong and mobile, Ren was still not much larger than many of the more impressive human warriors that Dal employed. All of which had been pumped up on numerous steroids and black market medical augmentations. He was in fact shorter than Dal, standing on two feet most of the time; he peaked at about six foot three compared to Dal’s impressive six foot six. Ren’s body had an almost half reptilian texture. Much of the skin on the front of his body was thick and strong, yet still generally soft to the touch, but his vital organs and the exposed portions of his head, neck, back, and shoulders, carried a coarse malleable armor, that was incredibly durable while somehow maintaining supreme flexibility. He was an absolute specimen to say the least. His head was very large and wide, as it was crowned in the near impenetrable natural armor, but his face was still open and clear to express any emotion...not that he ever did such a thing. Ren was the most stoic individual Dal had ever met; he was incredibly quiet as well. Ren could go for days without uttering a single word.

Ren’s personality and fiercely proficient nature was partially due to his races genetic traits, but it also largely stemmed from the way he was raised. Dal had purchased Ren from a slave trader while Ren was still an infant. His species was so rare, that few people, even the traders, realized what a valuable possession he was. But Dal made it his business to know such things. Having no interest in raising a child, Dal sent Ren off to a specialized facility in a discrete section of the galaxy where children could be molded into whatever suited them best as they grew. The children received a well rounded education but the main priority was to intensely train and program them into singular unmatched professionals in various skills and abilities that best suited their natural gifts. Ren’s species has always been known to let their actions speak for themselves, but the extremely controlling and militant style of training expounded that innate characteristic, causing Ren to become even more introverted than normal.

But there was one saving grace that still guides his behavior to this day and most likely is the only thing that kept him from becoming an uncontrollable and unfeeling killing machine. The facility wisely assigned each child a surrogate mother. The intent was to provide them a ground and balance to counteract the overbearing training and unrelenting rule of the instructors. For most children, the surrogate mothers meant very little beyond a calming respite from the rigorous activities of the day and a source of nourishment and care. Also, most of the women were simply there because they either had no choice. In the case of Ren, he was lucky. His surrogate mother was actually a young and beautiful human woman. She came to the facility because she had nothing else. She had no family and she had recently discovered that she was unable to have children of her own. A misleading recruiter turned her emotions against her and deceived her into thinking that the facility was a happy foster home for children in need of help. Once she arrived, she discovered it was far different, but she could not leave. So she decided to make the most of the situation and help any children as much as possible. As a result, she genuinely loved and cared for Ren.

As Ren grew, he felt a strong bond to her. Also, Ren did not realize it at the time but that experience had also fostered a strong physical attraction to human women in general, but beautiful human women were a rare sight in his line of business, especially in that part of the galaxy.

Dal-Sython leaned back in his chair and quietly pondered what was next for Ren as well as the sudden request from Chloe. He was not too surprised. He had been keeping a close eye on her since their initial encounter. Partially out of curiosity and partially because he knew that she would most likely get herself into a situation that he could capitalize on. Chloe was not a very hard person to read for someone like Dal-Sython. He had several ideas in mind, some more dangerous or risky than others. He decided that he would send her on a simple courier trip and pay her well enough to get her on her feet but not so well that she wouldn't most likely be back asking for help again in the near future. He wanted to build her trust in order to more easily manipulate her in the future if the need arises.

Having made up his mind, he told Ren that he had one more simple job for him. He explained that Chloe would be coming for a visit and that he wanted Ren to pick her up. At the time, Dal did not even realize that Ren knew who Chloe was; he simply wanted to give Ren an easy task as a change of pace from his normally grueling and dangerous missions.

As Ren was about to leave, Dal stopped him. Dal was not known to be a very generous or gracious, but he did take excellent care of those who took care of him. Dal would be leaving for a couple days and he would not need Ren's services until he returned.

"Ren, you have been more valuable to me than I can express. You deserve a reward. I will be leaving for a few days. While I am gone, you can pick any ship from my fleet and travel to any location you wish at no cost to you. In addition, I am going to have a rather significant portion of cash transferred into your account. I have a couple of rather untrustworthy "servants" who won't need their money for much longer."

Dal waited for Ren to respond, not sure what to expect from the emotionless creature. To his surprise...Ren shook his head side to side and said, "I have no need for more money or frivolous travel."

"Well...what is it that you would like? There must be something, name it and I'll do my best to make it happen."

Ren paused, then looked directly at Dal and stated bluntly, "Chloe."

"CHLOE!?" Dal blurted out, much louder than he intended. "You want Chloe...umm...for what?"

They looked at each other in silence for a few moments. Initially Ren held his gaze at Dal's confused face but couldn't resist the urge to slightly look down, showing honest embarrassment for probably the first time in years. That subtle sign of emotion hit Dal like a ton of bricks...

"OH SHIT.....THAT...I didn't even think you did that!" Dal had honestly never even considered the idea of Ren being anything more than a well oiled killing machine, he certainly never fathomed that he would feel a sexual attraction to something so naturally opposite to him as Chloe.

"...Well damn son, you have good taste!"

"I had other plans for Chloe, but it looks like her plans have changed. She should arrive somewhat soon. I'll send someone else to pick her up. I have a special place in mind where you can properly enjoy your reward." Dal leaned forward to hand Ren a small piece of paper. “Memorize this address, then destroy the paper. Head to that location tomorrow morning, I will make sure Chloe is there, I want to have a chat with Chloe before I leave anyway.”

At that, Ren turned and left Dal's office. Dal sat back down and let his brain churn. He had to admit, he couldn't think of many things that would be a nicer treat himself. He was more than willing to let Ren enjoy himself with Chloe for a few days. After all, it was easy to forget that even after 20 years of service and at the ripe age of 43, Ren had just barely entered prime physical maturity for his race. It was normal for males to not become sexually mature until their mid 30's. Now there was a chance that Chloe wouldn't feel quite the same about it, but if she was too bothered, she wasn't important in the grand scheme of things. Dal hoped to have her as a small pawn that he could bend to his will but he had already begun to formulate an idea of how he could turn this new situation into a lucrative venture. Chloe's ultimate response mattered little to him in the long run, but he had a small feeling in the back of his mind that once all said and done...Chloe might end up enjoying the experience...if Ren doesn't accidentally kill her.

Irony

Chloe checked her makeup and hair one more time before exiting the ship towards the luxurious sky car that had shown up just moments before to pick her up. She had spent at least an hour deciding what to wear, but not because she wanted to impress Dal. At least that is what she told herself. Eventually she had decided on an outfit. She wanted to wear something sexy and eye-catching but not something that implied that she was there for more than just business. Having allowed Dal to get the best of her in their last encounter, Chloe wanted to make sure that this time he took her seriously but without sacrificing the advantage of easily distracting him with her amazing features. So she had decided on a skin tight pair of leather pants that stopped just above her ankles and a light button up blouse with a few mild pieces of gold jewelry and a pair of her favorite high heels. Chloe would find any excuse to wear a set of sexy high heels. She had pulled her hair back in a tight stylish bun that rested on the back of her neck, and made sure her eyes looked dark and sultry. The last touch was a luscious powerful red color of lipstick that popped against her beautiful white teeth. It was the perfect outfit that covered almost all of her body but still somehow managed to ooze sex appeal. Chloe had the kind of style and body that could give any man a raging boner without even removing a single item of clothing. The driver of the sky car was already nursing a half chub just from watching Chloe casually stroll from her ship to the waiting car. He glared at her, daydreaming about all the things he would do to her given the chance. He even considered pulling the car into a secluded area, climbing in the back seat, ripping her clothes off, and forcing himself on Chloe but his fear of Dal's punishment rapidly banished that idea.

Chloe gracefully climbed into the back of the sky car and relaxed. The driver assured her that they would arrive at their destination soon but informed her that he would soon have to close the divider between them and darken the windows to prevent her from remembering how to find the secretive location. That seemed reasonable to Chloe, but she was eager to gaze outward for as long as she could. She had never visited this city before. The skyline was a strange combination of incredibly modern sky scrapers planted amongst various smaller building that seemed to vary in age and style by thousands of years. It was so intriguing that she was a little surprised when the windows began to gradually tint black and a solid metallic wall slowly sealed her view of the front half of the sky car. Still Chloe wasn't worried, but just before the divider completely shut her off she caught a glimpse of the drivers face in the rear view mirror...he seemed to be wearing a discomforting smirk, as if he knew something Chloe didn't.

A chill shot threw Chloe's body...what had she been thinking, allowing herself to be put in such a compromising situation. Chloe quickly glanced around the cabin to see if there was anything she could make use of...nothing... of course not. As panic increased Chloe's vision started to blur, at first she thought it may have just been a symptom of her fear, but it became worse by the second. Soon she felt confused and her eyes began to water as her breath became short, the irritation in her eyes masked her tears as she began to cry thinking her death was imminent ...then all went black and her unconscious body fell quietly across the long leather seat in the back of the car.

Unintelligible and muffled sounds began to hum in Chloe's ears. Soon she began to become aware of more senses, but she was still far from fully conscious and awake. Chloe felt an unusual but faint weight on specific parts of her arms and legs as well as a vague tingling coolness across most of her body. As she became more alert she felt the urge to speak, but she still couldn't manage to control all of her body, then she finally realized that she could still see nothing but blackness. She nearly panicked again, her groggy condition was probably all that saved her from gasping or screaming in fear, but she quickly realized that her eyes were just fine. She had been blind folded.

As several moments passed Chloe found that she could finally lift her head and began to make sense of the noises she was hearing. It was a voice...someone was speaking to her...it seemed familiar but she still wasn't sure.

"Chloe, wake up. You'll feel fine soon."

The words were kind but the voice was gruff and hollow. At first, Chloe felt a brief rush of happiness, assuming that the voice was a friend or at least an honest source of help. Then the events that occurred just hours before in the sky car burst into her memory...that voice...IT WAS DAL-SYTHON. Chloe was captured by fear again, she tried to cry out but she still had no control of her vocal chords, all she could do was gingerly lift her head.

"Take it easy babe. I'm not going to hurt you. So just relax and listen, I don't have much to say."

Chloe was now fully cognizant of his words, so she had no choice but to try and calm herself and hope for the best. She silently listened as Dal continued talking. His voice came closer until Chloe could tell that he was standing directly in front of her. For the first time since waking, Chloe was able to fully feel her extremities and torso as Dal wrapped his large hands around her tiny waist. He then leaned in close to the side of her face and whispered in her ear..."Consequences Chloe, every choice has consequences. Hopefully after this you will understand the power that I have over you."

With those words, Dal suddenly pulled away and hurriedly left the room, leaving Chloe alone and confused.

48 Hours

Ren nervously opened the inbox on his personal comms display in his private sky car, which he was quickly piloting to a location that he had known of but never visited. The message was read aloud by an ambiguous distorted voice. It was from Dal, and simply stated..."Ren, you have 48 hours." Ren twisted his grip on the cars controls, trying to resist the tension, but he would freely admit that he would feel less nervous in the face of one hundred blood thirsty warriors who wanted nothing but his death than he did at that moment.

Nearly twenty minutes had passed since Dal had left. Chloe had now almost completely regained all of her senses and feeling. She was still terrified but had tried to focus on understanding her situation. Dal's touch had revealed that she was almost completely naked, before that she had minimal sensation of touch, but now she could even feel the cool air across her exposed skin. The other fact that was now clear was that she was not seated or laying down...she was literally pinned to a wall a few feet off the ground with her wrists firmly held near her shoulders and her legs split wide open with her knees pressed back, making a mostly straight line across from each other, roughly even with her waist. Her lower legs and high heel adorned feet loosely dangled towards the ground. The other odd sensation was that despite her fully aware state and awkward position, she still felt light and far more comfortable than she thought she should, as though something was supporting her body weight. Chloe did not realize that the restraints that held her to the wall were literally doing just that. They were actually clamps that had been designed to allow heavy objects to be stored in unique positions on a wall or ceiling that would normally be too dangerous from the risk of falling. Each of the four clamps emitted a small energy field that was invisible, but could easily support over one hundred pounds of weight for an extended period of time.

Finally, Ren arrived. The location was a private condo that Dal had secretly built. It was known to only a very small number of individuals that Dal trusted deeply. He kept the condo hidden so that he could escape there if needed, but most of the time it was empty or being used for "special occasions". Ren entered the front door and made his way confidently towards the guest room where he knew his prize was waiting. Ren approached the door and reached forward to open it, but discovered that it was programmed to only automatically open for certain body signatures; luckily Ren was one of the lucky few. He entered the room and quickly surveyed the layout, curious to see where Chloe would be waiting. The room was large and fully furnished with modern technology, a sectional couch plus ottoman, small table, a door leading to a full bathroom, and a large comfortable looking bed. With a quick scan, Ren spotted Chloe pinned to the wall. He paused for a moment; he was actually a little taken back by the fact that she was held to the wall in such a compromising position. But those thoughts instantly left as he became overwhelmed by her beauty, just as he had when he first saw her in Dal's club several months prior. Ren just stood and stared for a long moment, soaking up her perfect curves. He was actually glad that she was blindfolded, he felt free to simply enjoy her presence at his own pace, as if looking at artwork on display. Ren quietly removed all of his clothing as he continued to admire her; he would have no need for them now.

Without even intending to, Ren used his years of training to approach Chloe so silently that she had no idea that another being was within just a foot of her. She had heard the door open, but was too scared to call out to see if anyone was there. Now only inches away Ren could see the goose bumps that covered Chloe's nude body and he could sense that she was obviously tense and scared. Blood was rushing through his veins, already beginning to enlarge his penis, but he still had enough restraint to control himself. He sincerely wanted Chloe to enjoy the experience, but at the same time he had 2 full days and selfishly wanted to keep Chloe blinded and restrained at first, so he could freely explore her body and hopefully convince her that he had no desires beyond lust.

Ren gently reached forward and delicately placed his right hand on the side of Chloe's neck and let his large thumb rest along her cheek. Chloe immediately gasped and lifted her head in shock, having had no idea that Ren was even in the room. She blurted out..."Dal...who is it!?"

Ren considered answering, but he was no good with words and smartly decided that he was better off showing her his intentions with actions instead. He slowly let his right thumb slide down from her cheek to her plump red lips and simultaneously placed his left hand on Chloe's left side above her hip. Ren gently massaged both locations with his hands, trying to calm Chloe. He was amazed at how smooth and soft her skin was. Chloe's breath became fast and heavy, she squirmed in her restraints, pointlessly trying to free herself out of fear. The rapid heaving of her chest from her deep breaths brought Ren's attention to Chloe's marvelous breasts. The cold air and tension had made her nipples rock hard, they pointed straight out at Ren as they raised and lowered with each deep breath. Ren stared at them and slid his left hand from her side to softly wrap his fingers around her left bosom. Ren's hands were larger than the average human's but Chloe's large round tits were big enough to enjoy a firm handful. He brought his other hand down from Chloe's face and eagerly grasped her other breast. He spent several minutes just staring at each perky orb and rubbing his hands around them in circular motions. Chloe was still unsure and breathing heavily, Ren let her rising chest press her tits into his waiting hands as he glided his fingers across her pointy stiff nipples. Eventually Ren wanted to explore more of her body. He traded off hands, always keeping one planted to a breast while the other hand eagerly glided along Chloe's torso, down her elegant legs, and around her back to massage her thick ass. He purposely avoided one specific area, saving that for last. He planned to spend plenty of time there as the hours passed.

After massaging and caressing her body for nearly half an hour, Ren noticed that Chloe was showing signs that she was no longer afraid. Her breath was still deep but much less rapid and her body was far less tense. She may not be ready to admit it, but he was confident that Chloe had begun to enjoy his touch. Ren began sucking on her nipples as he continued to explore. For the first time his touch was firm and sudden but not aggressive or hurtful. Chloe inhaled quickly and lightly arched her back in response, but she also bit her lip and let out a barely audible moan. Ren took that as a clear sign of pleasure. With that assurance Ren spent the next 15 minutes happily sucking on Chloe's nipples and fondling nearly every inch of her body with his hands. Then Ren felt something land on the top of his bare foot. He glanced down to see that it was a spot of liquid, as he looked down another drop landed just to the side of the first. Ren realized that Chloe had become so wet from nearly an hour of his "exploration" that her pussy was dripping onto the floor.

Ren bent down and rested his knees on the ground. Chloe's soaking wet, smooth, hairless vagina was open like a budding flower just in front of his face. The pink lips protruded ever so slightly, inviting Ren to come partake. Ren leaned forward with his hand on the tops of his thighs. He closed his eyes, opened his mouth and stuck out his wide coarse tongue. Having briefly lost contact, Chloe had no idea what was happening now, then she suddenly felt his warm roughly textured tongue slide up her pussy and flick across her clit. Chloe let out a small squeak of pleasure. Ren continued slowly licking her for a few minutes. His tongue had a dense bumpy covering that felt wonderful to Chloe. Soon Ren pressed his face in deeply and spent the next several minutes eating Chloe's pussy and rapidly rubbing her clit. Chloe was once again breathing hard and fast, but this time she felt no fear, only wonderful arousal. Chloe was about to cum when Ren suddenly stopped and pulled away from her body. He sensed her impending orgasm and decided he wanted her to wait a little longer.

By now Ren's cock was long and hard. His shaft was nowhere near the absurd length of Dal's but it was way over a foot in length when fully erect, plus it was impressively thick. He hoped the girth was not too much for Chloe to handle. Ren stroked his cock with one hand and resumed fondling Chloe's body again with the other. He continued for a few minutes, allowing Chloe to calm down again before he attempted to penetrate her. He expected it to be difficult at first and he wanted her to be prepared. Plus, she had been so close to an orgasm just a minute ago, he didn't want to instantly make her cum. He was sure that would happen several times over the next many hours, no need to wear her out too soon.

Ren couldn't wait any longer. He firmly grasped the base of his bulging shaft and guided it forward as he leaned in. The head of his cock pressed against Chloe's pussy, he paused for just a moment allowing Chloe to realize what was about to happen. Then he slowly leaned his hips forward. Chloe had been deeply enjoying his touch up to that point, but the feeling of his large tip pressing against her pussy shocked her more than she expected. She had of course known by now that it was coming, but the lack of vision and knowledge of who Ren was suddenly brought the fear back. It was one thing for a stranger to grope her body, but it was a whole different experience to realize that she was about to be penetrated by a completely unknown being. Again she felt tense, exposed, and even a little angry. As a result her muscles involuntarily tightened. As Ren tried to push his cock into her, it slipped up causing his shaft to glide up Chloe's stomach. Chloe's eyes went wide behind the blindfold; at first she didn't believe that the huge stiff flesh pressing against her abdomen was really the cock that was going to enter her. She had been able to handle Dal's freakish penis, but his was not this thick. But sure enough, she felt Ren slide his dick back down and once again push it against her pussy. It felt so big, she was becoming scared, but in the back of her mind she began to wonder how great it would feel if he did get it inside of her. Truthfully, Ren's shaft was impressive, but it was not unreasonably large or impossible for Chloe to receive. She simply had very little sexual experience outside of the human race. The numerous genetic modifications that she received as a child gave her body the ability to easily adapt and recover from various things that no normal human in the more primitive past could endure or experience. If she could handle Dal, she could handle Ren. Chloe simply needed to relax, but the lack of vision made her nervous and she seemed to be over reacting.

Ren realized how worried Chloe had become. He truly did not want the pleasure to be one sided. Chloe was more than lubricated enough, so Ren slid his hand up to the end of his shaft just before the head. He spent the next couple minutes slowly swirling his tip against Chloe's pussy to let her know that he would happily take it slow and make sure to not cause her pain; also he was completely coating the end of his dick in Chloe's own fluids. Then he began grinding the underside of his shaft up and down her soaking wet pussy, and then he switched and tucked his shaft below and allowed the top of his shaft to be covered with her natural lubricants. Finally his entire shaft was a gleaming flesh missile. Ren lifted it back up and tried once again to enter her vagina. At first he thought he would make it in, the tip began to sink between her lips but the skin around his cock was bunching up and his shaft began to bend. Then it suddenly popped up and quickly glided up her stomach again. Ren tried again two more times, with the same result, but each time he felt as though he was almost there. Chloe exhaled a loud breath. She was conflicted; she was having trouble relaxing for obvious reasons but deep down she knew it was going to happen and she wanted to let him inside.

Ren pulled back slightly, he firmly stroked his shaft with one hand and reached forward with the other, he took two of his large fingers and lightly pressed them against Chloe's beautiful red lips. Chloe opened her mouth and sloppily sucked on his fingers, coating them in fresh saliva. Ren eventually pulled them back, reached down, and gently pressed one finger into Chloe's pussy. Ren's fingers were very large but even he was surprised at how tight she wrapped around just one finger. Chloe lifted her head and panted lightly as Ren gingerly slid his finger in and out, eventually slipping in the second finger. The fit was incredibly tight at first, but after a minute he could feel Chloe begin to relax and allow his fingers to freely glide deep into her. Now she was ready. Ren stepped forward again and pushed his throbbing cock into Chloe's pussy once more, it was still amazingly tight, but the head quickly sunk inside, Ren slid his hand forward, only inches from his tip to try for better control and to keep his shaft from bending in response to the tight fit. He leaned his hips further forward, his dick skin was bunching up again as Chloe's pussy lips firmly wrapped around his cock but this time it was going in. Chloe's mouth went wide open as her breath escaped her and she pressed the back of her head against the wall, she couldn't see but still felt the urge to look upward. Little by little Ren's massive shaft slid into Chloe's remarkable pussy. Chloe's face reddened as she involuntarily held her breath; the further he went in the more she arched her back and clinched her fists. By now Ren was only about 8 inches in but that was enough, he stopped pushing and just held it steady inside of her. Chloe, feeling the tiny change in pressure finally gasped for air. Ren simply stood and watched. He was more than happy to soak up the moment for now. He was mesmerized by Chloe's breasts as they lifted up and down with her heavy steady breathing. For the last several months Ren had secretly been thinking of Chloe nearly every day, but he had never considered her more than a dream. He gazed down unable to believe that it was real, but there he was, his own cock inside of Chloe's flawless naked body.

Ren remained motionless for a few minutes with the exception of his left hand which was again fondling Chloe's breasts. Chloe had never been fucked by such a thick dick, but she was finally beginning to realize that it was not impossibly big. She could handle it and so far it felt amazing, the feeling was only surpassed so far in her past experiences by the times when Dal-Sython was wildly pumping his cock nearly two feet inside of her. Ren felt Chloe's vagina expand and loosen ever so slightly, he smiled as he realized that she was finally calming down and would be able to enjoy taking more of his cock.

On cue, Ren slowly pulled back but only a couple inches before he carefully began to thrust forward again. He moved very slowly, penetrating Chloe just another inch at a time with each forward and backward thrust taking a few seconds. Chloe closed her eyes and tried to remain relaxed, she was no longer scared but now the pure euphoric sensation of Ren's cock now ten inches deep was exciting her and making it hard to remain calm. Ren still had several more inches of shaft to go but he decided to take it slow. He slid his cock all the way back until only the tip remained enveloped. Then he slowly thrust forward again, her pussy was still tight enough to make his skin bunch up but this time it only took a few seconds for him to push his cock deeply into Chloe. He continued that process for several minutes. He placed his hands on Chloe's hips and settled into a very slow but steady motion. Ren calmly took about 8 seconds to slide his dick in and out each time and he never pushed past ten or eleven inches. Eventually Ren was able to gradually speed up. He started to push just a little deeper, 11 inches, then 12. Chloe was so wet that her liquids were literally streaming down the bottom of her thighs and down his shaft, covering and dripping from Ren's huge testicles. Chloe was finally fully able to enjoy Ren's fucking; the blindfold had previously been a deterrent that made it hard for her to accept the circumstances. Now she was utilizing the darkness to amplify each sensation. She leaned her head back, closed her eyes, bit her lip softly and turned her head to the side as she simply focused all of her attention on the enormous cock inside of her. As it slowly crept into her body she could even feel each of his bulging veins as blood rapidly pumped through them. Then Chloe suddenly let out a small half moan half squeak. Ren had ventured a little extra deep with the last thrust. His tip had found its maximum depth as it firmly bumped into Chloe's sealed cervix. Chloe knew that for her modified body, it was possible for her to allow his cock through...maybe. Dal had done it, but his cock was not quite as thick and it was much longer. Luckily Ren decided that he was deep enough for now.

Ren now confident that Chloe could take his cock deep and also aware of his limits decided to let his hands come off of her hips. He leaned his shoulders back slightly, widened his stance, and let his arms limply hang just behind his hips. From this position the only thing even touching Chloe was his dick. He would have plenty of time to feel the soft warmth of her body pressed up against his. But for now, he simply wanted to lean back and enjoy the view. He still couldn't quite believe that he was fucking her. From that position he could easily look down and watch his dick slide in and out of Chloe's wet pussy, and he could look up and enjoy Chloe's beautiful body react to his penetrations. He was still fucking her very slowly, but it was steady and enjoyable. Both of them thoroughly entranced by the feeling of his thick shaft sliding inch by inch as her wet pink lips squeezed around it. He had sped up but only slightly, now Ren was sliding about 12 inches of his 16+ inch dick in and out about every 3 seconds. Ren was too focused on watching himself that he didn't even realize that Chloe was nearing a climax. Even with his slow pace, it was such a tight fit that Chloe couldn't take much more. Then suddenly just as Ren mid way through a penetration Chloe let out a loud moan. She clinched her fists tighter. Her tone body began to spasm and Ren pushed forward and held his dick deep inside. He gleefully watched as Chloe moaned and squirmed against the wall. He couldn't believe how amazing she felt as her pussy trembled and her warm cum drenched his shaft.

Ren spent the next few minutes holding his dick inside of her and fondling her body. He allowed her to catch her breath and then pulled his dick out and watched as her cum poured from her pussy onto the ground. He only waited briefly before he stuffed his cock back in. Ren leaned back and resumed the previous reclined standing position. He was still totally satisfied by watching his dick slide into her. One of Ren's greatest strengths in battle was his patience and stamina... those skills carried over into his love making. He spent the next hour and a half continuing to fuck Chloe in the exact same manner. Just slowly sliding his dick in and out, he only occasionally changed his stance to lean forward and play with her breasts or gently caress her face and neck as he consistently penetrated her. Over the time period Chloe came on his cock three more times but he never pulled out. He literally fucked her at the same steady slow pace with no breaks for just over two hours all together. Chloe had loved every second of it. One of her greatest initial fears was that he would uncontrollably ravage her, causing her pain and ultimately ruining what could have been a mutually rewarding experience. That couldn't be farther from the truth. The way he fucked her was almost therapeutic. Had he been a normal man, Chloe may have even thought it boring and unfulfilling, but the immensity of his "organ" made that impossible. Previously Chloe would have never believed it was possible for her to feel such a perfect mix of calm relaxation and pleasure. Similar to a massage, yet that sensation was constantly accompanied by an otherworldly arousal and stimulation that would have unceasingly curled her toes were she not wearing her high heels. Just watching them have sex would tell a viewer exactly what she felt. For long periods of a time Chloe would close her eyes and her breasts would rise and fall as she softly breathed slow and deep breathes in time with Ren's movement. Then her body would slowly begin to quiver and her mouth would open wider as she gasped for more air just before a quake emanated from within her causing her to cum on his shaft with each glorious orgasm.

Finally Ren could sense that Chloe was getting tired and was also about to cum again for the 5th time. That is when he remembered the only advice Dal had given him. Dal didn't explain much he just told him that when she was nice and relaxed that he should fuck her hard and fast "until she's ready to blow", then quickly pull out and step to the side. Dal ensured him that both parties would enjoy it. So without warning, Ren once again grabbed Chloe by the hips but this time he stood close and rapidly rammed his dick in and out. Chloe was still very tight but it wasn't painful. For the first time Chloe heard Ren grunting and breathing. The sound of her mysterious lover and the feeling of his shaft pumping in and out sent chills down her back. She was about to cum again and this would be the hardest yet. She remembered the times when Dal made her squirt; she had enjoyed that new sensation and hoped she could do it this time as well. She tried to relax but it was hard with this giant cock ramming into her. Ren was only pulling out half way now before stuffing his dick 12 inches back in, he kept accidentally smashing into Chloe's cervix. It was a little painful for Chloe but she admittedly enjoyed it. She was now loudly panting and moaning with each thrust. Just a few moments later Chloe tensed her entire body and the lower part of her legs that had been dangling towards the ground suddenly shoot outward as she pointed her heels towards both sides of the room. Ren quickly pulled out and stepped back, still not sure why though. He gazed at Chloe's perfect body. It was dripping with sweat and glistened under the low lights. She greatly arched her back, thrusting her tits forward as she buried the back of her head into the wall. Just as she had before, her entire body was shaking as she orgasmed, except this time...each surge of pleasure was accompanied by a huge blast of liquid that wildly sprayed from her pussy. Ren had no idea that it would happen, but he certainly enjoyed the sight. He also felt a great sense of satisfaction knowing that Chloe probably enjoyed it 100 times more than him. Chloe continued to tremble and squirt for a while, but she gradually calmed and her body relaxed, though she was still breathing very heavily.

Ren on the other hand was more excited than he had been before. He couldn't help himself. He stepped back in front of Chloe as she hung tired from the wall. He pressed his huge cock back into her pussy. This time he placed one hand on top of her shoulder and with the other he cupped her breast. He instantly began fucking her again. His pace was swift and steady. Not nearly as fast as he had just before but much quicker than his initial calm slow tempo of the first couple hours. Ren wanted to have his turn to cum. He kept pumping her pussy for several minutes. Chloe was exhausted and for the first time, she hoped he was almost done. Ren was on the verge but there was one more surprise for Chloe. Ren's species had a unique way of experiencing sexual release. For the purpose of procreation, it was vital that both partners orgasm simultaneously in order for the female to carry a child. So as a result, the males produced a two stage orgasm. The first stage was to ensure that the female experience a climax and the second was an insanely powerful and copious ejaculation to ensure impregnation. Chloe felt Ren's grasp suddenly tighten, his strength was shocking but he was careful not to harm her. Then suddenly Ren froze in place with his cock deep inside of Chloe. Ren flung his head back and let out a long loud grunt of pleasure. Chloe expected to feel an enormous gush of cum release inside of her but instead she was assaulted by a new overwhelming feeling. Ren's cock had begun to literally pulse...uncontrollably... but it was not just simple small waves of feeling. To Chloe it felt like the galaxies most powerful sex toy. Chloe's mouth and covered eyes went wide open and she once again lost all of her breath. Amazingly Ren's cock began to pulse even harder, faster and more violently. Blood was powerfully pumping all through the veins in his shaft. Ren was still frozen in place with a tight grip on Chloe as he pressed his dick inward and continued to grunt. The first wave lasted for about 30 seconds. Chloe was now loudly moaning again, the 30 seconds of wild pulsing was enough to send Chloe spasming into one more intense orgasm. Yet, even through her own wonderful climax Chloe felt Ren's true orgasm. Ren bellowed an even louder roar and Chloe could feel a thick wave rapidly shooting through his shaft. A massive wad of hot cum exploded from the tip of Ren's cock deep inside of Chloe. Ren's ejaculations didn't come as several completely separate deposits or squirts like most males. Each enormous load would initially erupt with a giant blast of cum instantly followed by a strong steady squirt lasting for a couple seconds and just as it was about to end, a follow up wave would explode right behind it. That unbroken process would continue for as many as 6 to 12 times. After only the first two, cum was already spewing from Chloe's pussy and she could feel each next wave come as a thick bulge rolled up his shaft while he was still spraying a stream of cum from the previous load. Ren blasted nearly 9 gigantic loads of cum inside of Chloe before he finally finished.

After both orgasms had resided, Ren pulled his cock out and let it hang. He watched as a gallon of cum oozed from Chloe and pooled onto the ground. Then for the first time Ren stepped in very close to Chloe and pressed his body against hers. They were both breathing very hard as they tried to recover from the outstanding experience. Ren leaned his forehead against the wall between Chloe's head and hand. He stayed there for several minutes. Enjoying the feeling of Chloe's breasts pressing against him as she tried to catch her breath, he gently reached around behind her with one hand to caress her smooth lower back and ass. With the other hand he softly massaged her thigh and side. To Ren's surprise, Chloe began to gently kiss the side of his face. He didn't have "normal" lips and cheeks like a human but both he and Chloe enjoyed the expression of affection. That was Chloe's way to let him know that she appreciated his gentle yet passionate approach. He could have easily just come in and taken full advantage of Chloe in such a helpless situation. Ren was glad that she could enjoy it as much as he did..if not more. Chloe now fully realized for the first time how massive and powerful Ren was, no wonder he could barely fit inside of her. She was also impressed by how his body contrasted. Parts of him were as rough and hard as armor while others were soft and delicate against her skin. She now fully appreciated his ability to be gentle with her; it must require great control and dexterity for such a creature.

Both of them were exhausted, but Ren knew he had plenty more time to spend with Chloe. She was the more exhausted of the two. Ren pushed off of the wall and reached up to release the restraints on Chloe's arms. As her arms came free, she placed one around his muscular neck and rested the other on top of his opposite shoulder. Ren then freed her legs. Once completely free Chloe was surprised to feel the full weight of her body again, she now realized that the restraints must have been doing more than simply pinning her to the wall. But that feeling was short lived as Ren easily scooped her up and Chloe once again felt weightless in his powerful arms. Ren carried Chloe over to the bed and gently laid her down. He couldn't resist the urge to suck on her nipples and run his hands across her body for a few more minutes. Then he suddenly pulled away.

Chloe was still blindfolded. She wasn't sure what Ren would do next. So she just allowed herself to sink into the soft pillow and waited. A few moments passed and she felt nothing. She hesitated a little longer and then she sat up and softly called out..."are you there?" She didn't even know if he spoke the same language. So she bravely reached up and tugged off the blindfold. The room was completely dark. She blinked a few times until her eyes adjusted to the darkness. There was just enough light to see that she was alone. Chloe wondered how such a huge being could move so quietly. The thought quickly left her mind. She was exhausted and happy to be free of the wall. Chloe fell back in to the pillow and immediately fell asleep.

Chloe was still soundly asleep. The chemicals that originally knocked her unconscious in the sky car had not fully left her system, so they actually still maintained an active state in her body. That fact, coupled with Ren simply wearing her out meant that she could probably sleep all day if no one disturbed her. It took all of Ren's self control to give her this much time. He had decided to get some rest as well, but Ren never slept for more than a few hours at once, his body simply didn't need much rest. After waking and finding something to eat, Ren tried to meditate to pass the time. Eventually he could wait no more. Eight hours was more than enough in his opinion.

As Ren walked through the automated door leading into Chloe's room, he expected to see her out of bed or at least see her rise as a response to his arrival, but Chloe was still fast asleep. He approached the bed and gazed down at her. She had pulled a blanket across her nude body but it was obvious that she was a restless sleeper. The blanket now only covered half of her at most. She was lying on her back but both legs were comfortably tucked to one side, causing her torso to mildly twist. Ren noticed that she had been so exhausted that she didn't even bother removing her jewelry or heels, but she had discarded the blindfold. He watched her sleep for a moment, soaking in her beauty. He still struggled to wrap his mind around the fact that the woman he literally dreamt about was his personal play thing, even if it was only for a short time. Ren wondered how easily she would wake; she was taking long heavy breaths, as though deep in dream filled state. Ren decided that he still wanted to have a little extra control over her. He would give a little and take a little, just to make the experience unique. He found the blindfold bunched up in the corner of the bed and carefully placed it back on her face. Chloe turned over to one side...Ren froze and waited to see if she would wake. She did not. Luckily for Ren, Chloe's new position made it much easier to perform his next task. He wanted to restrain her hands again, but not against a wall, just behind her back. He would not have been able to do that without waking her up in her previous position. It was a testament to his amazing dexterity and precise touch that he was able to do it at all, but he managed to replace a set of the wrist restraints with Chloe's arms loosely tucked behind her back. Chloe stirred again, but only for a moment.

Ren was already near fully erect, but he still stood and watched her for several minutes while stroking himself until he was at full staff. Also, he had found some lubricant in the bathroom that he graciously applied all over his shaft. He successfully discarded the blanket that partially covered her body. Ren slowly raised one of Chloe's legs and let the other remain resting on the bed. Chloe had been sleeping very close to the edge of the bed, so Ren was able stand close by and leave one of his own legs planted on the floor and carefully lift the other and place his foot very gently on the middle of the bed. Once in position, their bodies made a kind of contorted scissor shape. Ren had held his giant cock upward in his other hand while he still supported Chloe's long leg. He leaned his hips back and pushed his cock downward until the head hovered just millimeters in front of Chloe's vagina, it was throbbing in anticipation. His lubricated tip pressed between her lips and then the first few inches gradually plunged inside. It was still an insanely tight fit, but Chloe's deep sleep caused her to be so relaxed that her body offered no unnecessary resistance. Ren was surprised to find that he was able to push a solid 6 to 8 inches in before he felt the need to back out and start over. The sleeping agent that Chloe had in her system must have still been working well in order for her to not respond. From this position, he managed to steadily and slowly give Chloe just over half of his huge cock with very little movement. There was something intensely erotic to him about fucking her while she slept. Chloe was responding to him, but not consciously. Her chest was rising faster with deeper breaths and occasionally she would try to move her arms only to quickly give up due to the restraints, but she truly was asleep. Ren was able to keep it up for several minutes. The room was so quiet as she slept that he could hear the faint squishing sound from the lubricant as his rigid meat glided in and out. He felt the urge to go deeper, thrusting his hips further forward now, plunging nearly a foot inside of Chloe. That was finally enough, Chloe turned her head and instinctively tried to roll to one side, but then she froze in place. Ren could actually feel her tense up around his shaft. Chloe's senses were assaulted by a dozen different messages, she felt the coolness of the room's air on her exposed body, she felt the restraints on her arms as they were awkwardly tucked behind her, and she noticed that she had been blindfolded once again. But all of that was instantly wiped from her mind by the other overpowering sensation; she immediately recalled the hours before her sleep as she realized that the same giant cock was buried deep inside of her again. The intense wave of pleasure that had accumulated from the last few minutes while she slept seemed to hit her all at once. She loved it, if only she could wake up every morning with the same experience. The massive dick slid back out and then drove back in. With her hands restrained and Ren grasping her legs, there was not much she could or needed to do. Oddly, it felt little different than being pinned to the wall. She surrendered herself to the still unidentified alien. Chloe sunk into the bed as Ren calmly fucked her.

Ren had enjoyed giving Chloe such a unique experience but now he wanted to increase his pace and motion. He pulled his cock out and let her leg fall to the bed beside the other. He then walked to the end of the bed and reached forward to pull Chloe down as well. Chloe was now flat on her back and her arms crossed beneath her. Ren drug her toward him until her ass just barely hovered around the bottom edge of the bed. This time he cupped his hand beneath each of Chloe's legs, just behind the knees. He lifted them slightly and spread them far out wide and allowed her feet to lightly dangle in the air. Then he moved his hips forward, it took a couple tries but he was able to stuff his cock back into Chloe's now wet pussy. Ren pushed deep, giving Chloe most of his cock. He continually fucked her at a steady pace. Every few minutes he would speed up just a little more. Chloe's breath was ragged and her tits were softly bouncing as Ren pounded her. His speed wasn't wild but it was fast and smooth. Soon Chloe gasped and her body trembled as she came all over his cock. Ren only slowed temporarily but didn't stop as he watched her body shake from her orgasm. Once Chloe had completed her climax Ren kept fucking her, but he was now venturing so deep that his tip was smashing into Chloe's cervix. He felt as though he could break through but wasn't sure. Chloe knew it may be possible but she was a little scared of his size. Ren let go of her legs and leaned forward. Chloe gritted her teeth and let out a loud moan. She could feel his tip pushing through. Ren gradually pressed forward, until his cock breached into her womb. The increased tightness was amazing for both of them. Chloe wasn't sure she could handle it at first. It was painful but also intensely satisfying. Ren was now balls deep, his cock could go no further as it ventured several inches into Chloe's womb. Ren clinched a handful of bedding with each large paw and began to pound in and out of Chloe, but only pulling back a few inches before pushing into her womb again. Chloe moaned and buried her head into the bed. After only a few minutes she erupted into another powerful orgasm.

Once she finished, Ren pulled out but stayed in the same position, his big dick laying across her stomach. He dropped his weight onto one elbow next to Chloe's chest and touched her sweating body with the other hand. Eventually Chloe regained her breath. Ren pushed himself up to his feet and carried Chloe up with him in one motion. He let her down and turned her around. Then he guided her to place her knees/shins back onto the edge of the bed. Chloe scooted forward on her knees, facing away from Ren. He started fucking her again in a kind of doggy style position, except Ren had reached forward with one arm and pulled her shoulders so that her back arched upward causing her perfect firm tits to point outward. After a few minutes he widened his stance, bent down very low and clinched the base of his shaft. He only penetrated her once about half way in this time, then quickly pulled back out and rapidly leaned forward, but he didn't stab his cock in again. He was still clutching the base of his shaft tightly. He suddenly flung his dick upward and aggressively slapped it against Chloe's pussy several times. His heavy tip whipped up and smashed against her clit. Chloe loudly squeaked and tensed up in response. Then just as quickly he leaned back and smashed his cock back into her pussy until his large hand collided with her ass. He pulled back out and slapped his shaft against her pussy again. He repeated the procedure over and over again as fast as he could. There was a loud SLOP as his cock plunged in and out shortly followed by a wet sounding FWAP FWAP FWAP FWAP FWAP. It was a loud and stimulating, Chloe was moaning and whaling and her round tits bounced as she rocked back each time he slapped her pussy. Ren changed up the routine, he let go of his cock and stabbed it completely into Chloe, forcing the end to burst into her womb. Then yanked his body backwards. He held his hand down catching his thick dick as it flopped out and quickly slapped her pussy again. The next time he stabbed his cock into her 3 times before pulling out to slap her clit. After a few more rounds it was obvious she was on the verge of a climax. Ren pulled his cock out again. He moved the hand that had been bracing her by the shoulder and reached around to cup one of her tits, forcing her posture more upright. Then leaned forward and wildly slapped his cock against her pussy and clit repeatedly. After nearly a minute Chloe screamed and her entire body violently shook. Ren had made her squirt again but this time she squirted far harder than the night before. Ren kept slapping her pussy as an intense high pressure torrent of clear liquid surged from her pussy. Chloe trembled as she repeatedly squirted. She was drenching her own thighs, Ren's whipping cock, and the bed sheets as she sprayed over and over. After a few minutes of the magnificent orgasm, Ren released his grip on her breast and allowed Chloe to fall forward on the bed, but her backside stayed propped up in the air. Ren couldn't resist the desire to gently and slowly glide his cock back into her pussy. Chloe was still recovering from her explosive release and honestly wasn't ready for his dick again, but she was still so overcome by a million tingling sensations that even his thick penetration seemed inconsequential at the time. Ren was courteously patient and affectionate. He knew that she was not ready yet, he merely wanted to have his cock inside of her at least. He placed one hand on top of her round ass and reached down to gently hold her tiny ankle with the other. He massaged her thick rump and pulled slightly up on her ankle. Then he very slowly rocked back and forth, soothingly gliding his cock in and out. He carried on like that for several minutes until Chloe had regained her breathe. He moved his hand down from her ankle and gripped the long pointed heel of her shoe and pulled her lower leg up even higher, then he repeated the process with the other hand as he gradually begin to penetrate her deeper and faster, but still at a calm pace.

After several more minutes he let go of her heels and reached forward. He gripped her upper arms with both hands as they were still trapped behind her from the restraints. Ren sank his cock balls deep into Chloe from behind. He was slow and steady at first. Gradually he worked into a quick tempo, but not too fast. With every thrust his ball sack was swinging forward and slapping against Chloe's clit. Before long Chloe had cum all over his dick again but this time it was not powerful and strong, it was a blissful relaxing pleasure. He continued pumping into her, his cock easily bursting into her womb with each penetration. Ren was allowing his carnal lust to take over him. He wanted to see if he could make her squirt again.

Ren let go of Chloe's arms and reached around to grasp a handful of each of her breasts. He pulled her back to his chest with his shaft still buried inside of her. Then with impressive strength he stood up straight and brought Chloe with him. He stayed there for a few minutes. Chloe on her feet for the first time...in nearly a day's time... she couldn't resist the urge to slowly gyrate her hips, twisting herself ever so slightly around his cock. Ren loosened his grip on her and leaned back a little, letting Chloe grind on his dick for a few minutes. Then, firmly hugging her upper body and with his cock still curling up into her pussy. They awkwardly walked over to the closest wall. Ren turned around and stood about a foot and a half in front of the wall holding Chloe in front of him. He then leaned back until his shoulders and neck thudded against the surface. He widened his stance and Chloe stood mostly upright between his legs, leaning forward just slightly. Her feet were together and knees just slightly bent causing her body to lightly clamp down on Ren's shaft. From there Ren again wrapped his hands around her upper arms. He stood perfectly still and easily pushed and pulled Chloe forward and back onto his cock at a gentle slow speed. He enjoyed the view as he could watch her plum ass jiggle each time he made her plop into him. Her back was arched and she blindly gazed up at the ceiling as she enjoyed the renewed tightness of his huge cock gliding in and out.

Then suddenly Ren released her arms, bent downward and firmly grabbed the back of both of Chloe's thighs a few inches above the knees. With impressive strength he easily began to lift Chloe up and down, it almost looked like he was doing bicep curls. He was slow at first, making sure Chloe could keep her balance. It wasn't hard for her, how could she fall forward with nearly a foot and a half of rock hard meat curling into her from below. After a moment he began to match his arm movements by raising and lowering his hips in the opposite direction. Soon he was forcefully stuffing his cock up into Chloe as he let her drop back down, then he would quickly lift her up and he lowered his hips. This allowed him to pump his entire shaft completely in and out of her at a rapid powerful rate. Chloe was moaning loudly and sweat was dripping off her body as her tits bounced up and down. It felt amazing for her. Ren's balls where swing up and slapping against her clit again. Chloe had not spoken to Ren yet, she didn't even know if he would understand her, but she had to yell out...

"...AHHH...FUCK ME HARDER...MAKE ME SQUIRT....AHHH.....AHHHH....AHHHH...FUCK ME...FUCK ME...AHHHH!!"

Ren understand her perfectly and he was good at following orders. As fast and hard as he could he lifted Chloe up and slammed his cock into her as she dropped back down. Their bodies loudly slapped together as both of them had been profusely sweating. Moments later Chloe let out a deep moan and fell back into Ren's chest. Ren lifted her lower half up and dropped his hips allowing his hard cock to pop out of her just in time. Ren felt her leg muscles shake in his hands and watched over her shoulder as her nipples flung upward from the first surge of pleasure in Chloe's intense orgasm. Then he saw a geyser of liquid eject abundantly from her pussy and stream through the air. Chloe continued to moan, tremble, and squirt for nearly a full minute making a mess all over the floor. Ren just held on to her tightly and relished the feeling of her body shaking against his, content in knowing that his love making was more than satisfying.

When Chloe was done, Ren was still rock hard and wanted more, he knew he was close. He quickly let her down to her feet. They spun around, switching places. Ren firmly pressed Chloe's back against the wall. Ren slid his cock into her wet pussy and cupped her breasts. Chloe just stood still and allowed Ren to rapidly fuck her. His pace became faster and faster as he moved his hands from her breasts to grasp her shoulders, then down to her hips, then he let go entirely and let his arms hang at his sides. His shoulders leaned back and his arms swung as he hammered all 16 inches of his cock into her as fast as he could. Then abruptly he froze with his dick deep inside. Pleasure hotly shot through Chloe's body as the first stage of Ren's orgasm assaulted her. His extraordinary manhood savagely pulsed and throbbed inside of her, easily sending Chloe into yet another wonderful climax. She moaned and shook against the wall as she waited for him to unload his semen inside of her. But he hastily stepped back and pulled free of her. There was a tiny second of silence then Ren roared in delight and Chloe felt a huge blast of hot cum explode on her chest just above her breasts. It felt like being hit by a small water balloon filled with cum. Ren leaned back causing the thick stream trailing behind the initial blast to fling up and streak across Chloe's face then back down her neck. Instantly another blast splattered across her bosoms. Ren released many more unbroken surges of cum until finally finished. Chloe was completely drenched. Cum was dripping off of her chin and nipples and running down her thighs. She licked it off of her lips. The taste was sweet and warm. Too tired to stand, she slid down the wall and rested with her head back. Ren pressed his tip softly against her lips and stood motionless catching his breath while Chloe slurped down the last dregs of his cum.

While Ren's kind had excellent sexual stamina, their orgasms were so intense that they could rarely continue without a break afterwards. Chloe was lucky; she needed to recover as well. Both of them rested on the ground for several minutes without making a sound. Then Ren got to his feet and took Chloe by the elbow. He gently helped her to her feet and turned her around. Chloe was worried that he would penetrate her again, but he did not. To her surprise he removed the restraints that held her hands behind her. Then he placed his hand gently on her back and guided her across the room. She heard a door open and he nudged her through. She heard her heels click on what sounded like a tile floor. Then the door closed behind her. She paused for a second then quickly removed the blindfold and turned to go back. The door opened but the room was empty, she caught just a tiny glimpse of the door closing on the other side of the room that Ren had just rushed through. She trotted over to it, but a red light accompanied by an obnoxious buzzing informed her that she could not exit. Feeling a little frustrated, she walked back through the other door and entered a large bright bathroom. That was definitely the place that she needed to be. Chloe removed her heels and jewelry and stepped into a steaming shower.

Chloe didn't return from the bathroom for well over an hour. She thoroughly enjoyed the long steamy shower. After drying, she found that the closet actually had a clean set of panties and a bra, as well as a soft thick robe. There was even make up and brushes. Chloe sat in front of the mirror and freshened up. She had no idea if the mysterious alien would even return, but she wanted to look her best just in case. Afterward she explored the room for a few minutes. The door still mocked her attempts to leave and the windows were far too secure to even consider getting through them. Another hour passed and Chloe decided to lay on the soft couch and take a nap. After all, she had woken up to a nice surprise the last time she went to sleep.

A few hours after Chloe had fallen asleep again on the couch, Ren returned. He didn't expect her to sleep long, so he quietly knelt a few feet from the couch and calmly meditated as he watched her sleep. He pondered how she would respond when she woke and saw him for the first time. He didn't have to wait long. Only a few minutes later Chloe stirred and then opened her eyes. Her vision was blurry at first, but she was happy to see that she could... see. She rubbed her eyes and when she reopened them...she saw him. Ren was patiently kneeling just a few feet from where she lay. Chloe propped herself up on one arm and rested the other on her hip. They just stared at each other for a moment. Then Chloe realized, she had no idea if this was the same creature or not. She studied his features. He was large and muscular with big hands and wide neck and head. It seemed to be what she imagined. Then she looked down and saw his long thick phallus flopped between his thighs.

"Yep...that's him." Chloe mumbled to herself.

"Do you understand me?" she asked attentively. Ren slowly nodded his head in confirmation. Chloe was happy to know that they could communicate, but ultimately she had nothing to say. There was an awkward silence. Then Chloe asked what his name was. He spoke for the first time. "Ren." His voice was deep but still sounded reserved. It seemed to match his personality perfectly in the way that it contrasted. Chloe cutely smiled then reached up and brushed her hair behind her ear and started to answer with her own name, but Ren cut her off. He explained in detail that he knew her name. He even told her that she was there purely because he had lusted after her and requested her as a prize. Chloe was struck with an odd mix of emotions. Part of her felt offended that she could simply be plucked up and presented to a complete stranger as a prize. Yet, Ren's actions to this point had proven that he did have at least some genuine feelings. He could have asked for a million things, but he wanted her most of all. Chloe found herself blushing as she thought about it.

Ren then explained that Dal had only promised that he could have a specific limited amount of time with her. Chloe guessed that by now at least half of that time must be gone, but there had to be several more hours to go. Then Ren utterly shocked Chloe by bluntly telling her that if she wanted...she was free to leave at anytime from that moment on. Chloe looked in his eyes and could tell that he was serious. She glanced at the door and considered the offer. Then she looked back at Ren and made her decision.

Chloe slid her feet off the couch and stood up. Then she looked down at Ren and untied her robe before letting it drop in a heap around her high heels, showing off the lingerie she had found in the bathroom closet. Chloe seductively gazed at Ren with her gorgeous dark eyes. Then she slowly bent down and crawled over to him like a cat on the prowl. As she crawled she thought to herself that this was her last chance to change her mind. She didn't, if Dal or Ren had wanted to harm her, he already would have. She was now confident that when this was over, she would be free to leave. Besides, now that she could see it, she desperately wanted Ren's cock inside of her again.

As Chloe came closer she could see Ren's penis begin to grow. He was still on his knees with his feet tucked in under his butt and his legs casually open about half a foot apart. His cock was laying on the ground between his thighs but it was beginning to lift itself upward as it extended outward. Ren stayed motionless and just watched her approach. Chloe placed both hands on his enormous thighs and leaned in close. She started kissing him on the chest. With each peck she worked her way upwards to his neck, then his cheek and around to his ear. Chloe whispered quietly, "Now it's my turn, you just stay put okay."

Then Chloe began kissing him again, but this time she worked her way back down the way she came. Except she didn't stop at his chest where she started; she kept going all the way down until her head was tucked between his thighs. Chloe began kissing the top of his still rising cock until she reached the tip. There she stuck out her tongue and slid it beneath the end of his shaft and wrapped her lips around his tip. Her mouth was just barely wide enough to accept his girth. She twirled her tongue in slow circles around it then began trying to take more of it into her mouth. It was difficult and she could only receive a few inches at most, but Ren would never even consider complaining. The mere fact that she was doing this completely of her own free will made him ecstatic. Ren was now fully erect and sticking up so far that Chloe had to move her hands back to her own thighs and sit more upright. Ren looked on as Chloe's head slowly bobbed up and down a few inches. He could hear the slopping sounds as her saliva coated the end of his shaft. Chloe kept at it for a while, and then she started to stroke exposed base of his cock with one hand and play with his testicles with the other. Ren closed his eyes and focused on the feeling.

Eventually Chloe stopped and stood up again. This time she removed her bra and panties and tossed them aside. Then stepped forward straddling Ren's bent legs. With her wide stance she slightly bent her knees and lowered her smooth hairless pussy right into Ren's face. He had to lean his head back a little but he had no trouble putting his mouth in just the right spot. Chloe moved her hands around, massaging random places on her body while Ren happily ate her pussy. "God your tongue feels so good!" she exclaimed between soft moaning breaths. After a few minutes Chloe turned around but stayed in the same spot. She widened her stance just a little more so that Ren could reach her pussy with his mouth without having to sit up higher. Then she locked her knees and slowly started bending over at the waist. Ren's long shaft was sticking almost straight up in the air now. It was easy for Chloe to bend down and restart the blow job while still allowing Ren to orally pleasure her. Ren reached up and fondled her breasts. They continued licking and sucking each other for well over an hour until Chloe finally stood upright. She felt like she was going to cum soon if they didn't stop. Chloe turned around and told Ren to rise up a little bit but stay on his knees. She then squatted down and pointed her knees outward. Giving Ren's prick a clear path to slide up between her round tits. Chloe proceeded to press her breasts together and grinded them up and down his shaft for several minutes. His cock was long enough that it extended through her tits high enough so that she could lean her head down and let the tip slide across her tongue or between her lips each time she moved down. She had cum so many times already and she couldn't believe how much it took to make Ren burst. She had been sucking and grinding on his cock for over an hour and he wasn't even breathing hard. Eventually Chloe was ready; she could wait no longer to have him inside of her again.

Chloe stood up and pushed Ren back down so that his butt rested on top of his feet once again. She looked down at his cock as it arched rigidly up towards her, covered in her saliva. Then she turned around and stepped back so that she was straddling directly over his phallus. Chloe widened her stance and began to squat down. As she got closer she turned her head to look down behind her, over her shoulder. With one hand she reached up and brushed her shiny hair back away from her face and rested her palm on her cheek. With the other hand she reached back and down behind her and grasped the middle of Ren's penis. She could feel blood pumping through it as he anticipated their bodies joining again. With her legs now deeply bent she aimed his tip directly into her saturated pussy. Both of them closed their eyes and Chloe partially opened her mouth and held her breath as his manhood pierced her. She gingerly bent her knees further, receiving more of him. The shock of the tightness had never left but in their last session Chloe felt like she had been getting somewhat used to it, but now that Ren was simply sitting still and letting Chloe do all the work. She realized how committed she had to be in order to force his bulging meat inside of her. On her first attempt she couldn't get more than a few inches inside of her before his shaft began to bend and the skin bunched up preventing it from sliding deeper, ultimately making it pop out. Chloe lifted up and slowly worked her way back down. Her body weighed much less than Ren's so it was hard to overcome the thickness. She raised and lowered herself several times. It felt wonderful but at most she was never able to get more than about half way down before his cock would bend one way or another, resisting further penetration. Ren wouldn't have complained but he could tell that Chloe wanted more of his cock. On the next upward motion Ren reached up with both hands and gently grasped her by the hips. Chloe paused for a moment, a little frustrated but she knew what he was trying to do. Chloe reached back and gripped his wrists with both of her hands, causing her entire upper body to slightly curve backward. Then she lowered herself down again. This time Ren gently pulled down as well, it made little difference on the first few tries but eventually Chloe started to moan as more and more of Ren's cock pushed into her. Soon Chloe was steadily bouncing up and down and his tip was again butting against her cervix with each penetration. On the next attempt he broke through. Chloe stopped and let out a muffled squeal of delight as he entered her womb. Instead of instantly rising back up, Chloe swirled her hips and rocked back and forth as his balls squished against her crotch. Chloe slowly lifted back up and back down again over and over, allowing his cock to enter her womb each time and each time she would halt at full penetration and grind for several moments before starting over. On one of the grinding motions Chloe felt an orgasm coming, she tensed on his cock and Ren noticed. He tightened his grip and wouldn't allow her to rise up. Chloe panted and moaned, she threw her head back and reached forward to rub her clit with one hand while digging her nails into his wrist with the other. Ren never got tired of the sight and feeling of Chloe cuming while his dick was still deep inside of her.

Ren massaged her breasts while she recovered. After a few minutes Chloe stood up and turned around. She again straddled him in the same manor. She reached down with her left hand and spread her lips as she bent her knees to once again sink deeply onto Ren's shaft. Chloe placed her other hand on his shoulder to help her balance as she slowly rose up and down. Her pace was slow; the long hours of sex finally began to wear her down. She didn't have the energy to immediately recover and go back to any kind of aggressive behavior. Ren didn't mind. He would have stayed there all day allowing Chloe fuck him at her own tempo. After a few minutes Chloe place both hand on the sides of Rens neck and leaned back. From there she continued to slowing grind up and down his cock but she was now leaning back enough to come in at a bit of an angle. Eventually she leaned in close and pressed her breasts against Ren and whispered into his ear that she wanted him to stand up and take her over to the ottoman in front of the couch. Ren easily rose to his feet as Chloe clung to him. He sauntered over to the ottoman and sat down as he was told. As he situated himself he reached around to grab Chloe's ass with one hand placed the other hand in the middle of her back. He gently pulled her close and held her tightly. Chloe was still straddling him and his cock had never left its deep penetration. She was now able to rest her shins on the soft surface of the ottoman with as her knees extended to either side of Ren's hips. Ren just held her close but gave her enough freedom to leisurely swivel her hips and grind in a circular motion. Neither of them raised up and down or thrust in and out. They simply enjoyed the warm touch and felt each other's heart beats as they pressed their chests together. Chloe rested her head on top of her own hand that was placed on his shoulder. She sensually kissed his neck. Both of them were happy to stay that way for a long time.

Eventually Chloe whispered for Ren to lay back flat. She playfully pushed his chest as she flopped backwards. Then Chloe lifted her feet up behind her and rested them on top of Ren's thighs that still protruded between her legs. She kept her knees down on the cushion. So that her legs made a "v" shape and her heels actually pointed at an angle towards each other just behind her buttocks. From there Chloe placed both hand palms down on Ren's muscular stomach between her own thighs with her arms locked at the elbows. This caused her to mildly squish her tits together. Ren folded his arms behind his head and just watched. Chloe continued to slowly grind on him but now she would also randomly push her ankles down into Ren's thighs to lift up and then lower back down on his cock. Her rate was still slow and sensual. Then she reached back and grabbed both of her long heels with each hand causing her back to arch and her perfect tits to bulge outward. She closed her eyes and slowly traded off between swiveling her hips and rocking forward and backwards. It was pure bliss for Ren. Her body looked amazing in that position. Her legs split wide as she straddled his wide hips, her arching back causing her to show off her sculpted hourglass torso that led his eyes up to her firm bulbous tits. She held her shiny red lips just a tiny bit open as she quietly moaned. The room's lighting perfectly accented the features of her face as it leaned to one side with her dark eyes closed and her shining hair dangling loosely in the same direction. He couldn't resist sliding his hands gradually up her thighs, then up to her hips. He paused and gently massaged her sides just below her rib cage before he reached up and softly cupped her breasts. He cupped his hands and let Chloe press her nipples into his palms as she slowly rocked on his cock.

Soon Ren was too excited to keep up the reserved pace. He pulled Chloe down onto him, then reached down and grasped the back of her thighs just below her ass. He pulled her forward until her tits dangled inches from his chin. Chloe reached forward and planted her hands next each side of his head. Ren pushed his hips upward, repeatedly pumping his cock in to Chloe from below. Their bodies clapped together about twice a second and Chloe's nipples swung gently across Ren's chin each time he thrust into her. Eventually Ren rose up and then slid his hands from just below her ass to about halfway down the back of her thighs. He gripped her tightly and then rocked forward to stand up. They continued fucking at a regular speed for several more minutes. Chloe was holding tightly onto his shoulder with one outstretched arm and randomly moved her other hand from her tits to his forearm, and sometimes placed her hand on her own hip or ass. Ren began to gradually lift Chloe higher with each movement now. His cock was curled upward like a banana in order for it to glide forward and up into her. He stood rigid with a slight backward lean and with his great strength he easily lifted Chloe up and out and plunged her back down fully onto his curled dick. Chloe was moaning wildly and she was digging her nails into both of Ren's forearms as she tried to balance and absorb his powerful technique. She came hard and fast. Her nails dug harder into his arms as she trembled with delight but Ren kept raising her up and slamming her back down. Several minutes later he could take no more. He held Chloe against his body as the first stage of his orgasm sent her into a new climax of her own.

Then he violently erupted inside of her. This time he came directly into her womb. The first release completely filled her. Cum came spewing out of her all over the ground as he ejaculated for nearly two minutes. At last he finished. He carried her over to the couch and laid her down. Then slowly pulled his dick out of her, the entire thing was coated in a thick layer of milky cum. Chloe sat up and licked it off until it every inch was clean. Then she fell back onto the couch, ready for another break.

Both of them now realized that they were starving. Chloe went to the bathroom to clean up again as Ren left the room in hunt of something to eat. He found the kitchen to be full of food. He brought several things since he had no idea what Chloe would enjoy. When he returned Chloe was curled up in her robe on the couch. She smiled at him as he brought a tray full of food to her. Most of it was far too expensive and fancy compared to what she was used to. So she playfully tested as many items as she could. She even made Ren feed several things to her. Chloe noticed that Ren seemed to enjoy a bottle of thick purple cream. So she opened her robe and dabbed an ample amount on her nipples, then made a curving line down her stomach and spread some across her pussy. Then lastly she flicked a dollop onto her bottom lip as she lay back on the couch. Ren gleefully knelt next to her and carefully lapped up every last spec of cream sending tingles through her body as his textured tongue stimulated her most sensitive areas. After a while they had both satisfied their hunger and felt fully rested. They looked at each other, both knowing that there was only a few hours left before their time together expired. They were both quite drained figuratively and literally, but the food had given them enough energy for at least one more passionate exchange. Regardless, they both planned on taking it slow and easy to enjoy it as much as possible. Chloe scooted over closely next to Ren on the couch. She reached down and scooped up Ren's flaccid cock and gently stroked it. Chloe spent the next several minutes stroking and sucking on it until it was bulging and throbbing in her hand at it's full thick 16 inches of glory. Chloe lifted one leg and placed it on the other side of him with her knee up and her high heel planted into the cushion. She reached down and guided his dick into her as she slowly shifted her weight towards that side. She also wrapped her left arm around the back of his neck and held her posture straight up while she draped her other arm limply behind her. From that position they both were able to enjoy his vein filled meat smoothly glide in and out of her wet pussy as she slowly rocked her weight forward and back at an angle.

Dal-Sython was firmly stroking his ridiculously long cock with one hand while he leaned back and observed the erotic show on several different large monitors. Dal had returned a few hours early from his trip but knew that he had promised Ren a full two days. So he gladly snuck into his private office in the condo and enjoyed watching the footage from the last 40+ hours inside of the special guest room. His plan had worked far better than he had even hoped. Neither Ren nor Chloe had any idea but the second Dal realized what would be happening in that room for two straight days he hatched a plan to make a load of cash off of it.

Dal had many legitimate, if not wholesome businesses that he ran in addition to his illegal activities, one of those just so happened to be a webcam service. Mostly it was nothing more than a subscription where horny aliens could pay to watch various females entertain them at all hours of the day, but on a few rare occasions, he was able to provide a special showing that usually tripled the normal login and subscription rates for a limited time. The special guest room at the condo served many purposes, some of those purposes involved keeping an eye on the temporary inhabitants. There were literally dozens of discretely placed cameras and microphones in every nook and cranny of the room. Each one was ultra high tech and captured sound and video in incredible quality. So without intending to, Dal had perfectly designed the room as the absolute best set up to record and broadcast an intensely erotic two day sexcapade with one of the most gorgeous human women in the galaxy and a rare yet imposingly impressive alien that was shockingly good at fucking her with his huge cock. Dal made a ship load of money. The viewership started out slow, with just the typical number of frequent customers, but within only a few hours, the word spread like a wild fire and by the second day. The login counter was in the hundreds of millions. He made more money from that web service in two days than it had made over the last 6 years combined.

Dal looked up at the clock and realized that they only had two hours left before their time was up. Dal suddenly felt the urge to make a “celebrity” cameo in the last hours of the show.

Ren let Chloe continue for a few minutes. Then he reached forward and grabbed onto the thigh of her right leg and cupped her ass with the other large hand. He deftly rocked forward and sprung to his feet. His dick crammed balls deep into Chloe in the process. She gasped and threw her head back as it pierced into her womb again. Ren carried her over to the end of the couch and lowered her onto the armrest. She rested on to it with the small of her back. Her shoulders and head arched down on the couch cushion behind her and her ass dropped off the end, only supported by Ren’s cock still inside of her. Chloe split her legs and comfortable bent her knees. Ren grasped her around the midsection with both hands and gradually began thrusting deeply in and out. He wasn’t too hard or aggressive. He wanted to just sensually fuck her for every last second before it was over. He randomly moved one hand up to fondle her tits, while he kept penetrating her balls deep at a slow speed for several minutes.

Then they both heard a familiar noise. The automatic door has slid open. Ren looked up to see who it could be. Dal strided confidently into the room. Ren paused and looked at Dal quizzically. Then he felt Chloe’s hand glide across the base of his half exposed cock as she begged for him to continue. “Don’t stop Ren...it feels good...fuck me slow and deep like that” Chloe had been too absorbed in pleasure to even care why the door had opened.

Dal recognized the confused and semi frustrated look on Ren’s face. He held both hands up in a passive position and said “Hey, don’t stop for me...I know I’m early. I just figured I would check in on you two love birds.” Dal casually took a seat on the couch just a few feet from Chloe’s head.

Ren didn’t appreciate Dal’s early arrival nor his sarcastic demeanor, but ultimately Dal was the one that gave him this opportunity. So Ren wasn’t about to allow his surprise visit ruin his last chance to touch Chloe’s soft skin and feel her warm pussy tightly wrap around his cock. Chloe softly petitioned him again, “...fuck me Ren...it’s fine...give me all of your cock.” Ren looked back at his beautiful mate and slowly began thrusting his dick back into her.

Dal leaned back and stroked his absurdly long penis as he watched and listened to Chloe respond to Ren’s passionate fucking. He thought to himself that it was no wonder that he made so much money, they made quite the erotic display. After a few minutes he couldn’t just sit by and watch anymore. He scooted over close to Chloe. Ren was holding her with both hands by the hips to help secure her as he drove his cock back and forth. This left Chloe’s tits tragically unattended. Dal reached out with one hand and mischievously twisted her nipples. Ren looked up, he did not fully approve, but he did not protest. Chloe was deeply panting with her mouth partially open. Dal slid two of his fingers in and let her twirl her tongue around them until they dripped as he pulled them out. Dal rubbed his wet fingers on the end of his cock. Then he stood up and placed one shin on the couch cushion while planting his outside foot on the floor. He took his shaft in his hand and slowly slid it side to side across her lips. Chloe was so deeply enjoying the experience that she didn’t mind it at all. Ren still wasn’t happy about it but ultimately he just wanted to fuck Chloe and if Dal was going to participate for the last short while, that was fine. Chloe lifted her chin high up causing the top of her head to bury into the cushion. This gave Dal a perfect angle to push the end of his 30 inch cock between her lips. He let Chloe drench the first few inches with her tongue. Then he slowly slid it in and out. Dal’s cock was comically long but it was not quite as thick as Ren’s. So he was able to force several inches into Chloe's mouth. The angle of Chloe's head bent back actually made it relatively easy for Dal to press a long section of his dick across her tongue and deep into her throat. She gagged on the first few tries but soon she relaxed and breathed completely through her nose. Dal nodded in surprised approval. He didn't expect to make it nearly 10 inches into her mouth but he was able to slowly thrust back and forth and each time he easily slid nearly a 3rd of the way in as her neck slightly bulged when the first few inches of his tip slickly glided deep into her throat. Dal fucked her mouth for a few minutes until he could tell she was almost out of breath. He benevolently pulled out and leaned his hips forward. He flopped his dick between her ample breasts. Chloe squeezed them together and held out her tongue as his cock glided back and forth across her face and between her tits. Once Chloe regained her stamina, Dal slipped his dick back in her mouth. This time Chloe used both hands to tightly massage the middle of Dal's cock while he deeply fucked her throat again. Dal spent the next 45 minutes switching back and forth from Chloe's tit's to her mouth. All the while Ren had been unceasingly pounded Chloe's pussy. He admitted to himself that he enjoyed watching Chloe pleasure Dal while he fucked her, but he enjoyed what happened next even more.

Chloe had been so wrapped up in Dal's dick that she was even a little surprised herself when the first when her body began to tense on the verge of a new orgasm. Ren recognized it as well and fervently thrust into her harder and harder. Soon Chloe's body erupted in several waves of euphoria once again. Both males loved watching her spasm as she came on Ren's dick. Dal had also realized that she was about to climax and would need to breathe, so he had pulled his dick out of her throat and let the tip rest on her lips so she could still kiss and lick it. What he didn't plan on was for to squeeze the hell out of his shaft and wildly stroke it in response to her orgasm. Dal hadn't had sex in longer than he realized, so the last 45 minutes meant that he was closer to bursting than he normally would be. The surprising movements by Chloe with her hands sent Dal over the edge before he even realized it would happen. Chloe was just as surprised. Her mouth had been open as she was licking the tip of his cock but the only real warning she had was the sudden and rapid lump that shot through Dal's cock and squeezed between Chloe's hands. Before she could even respond, an enormous load of hot white cum exploded into her mouth. Instantly followed by another just as large, within a second her mouth was overflowing with semen. She tried to gulp down as much as she could but Dal's release was far too abundant. It spilled out across her face and ran down her neck. Dal pulled his dick up and held it in his hand while he spewed the remaining gigantic blasts of cum all over her tits. When finished Dal took a deep breath and let his dick drop back down onto Chloe's lips so she could lick the jizz from it while she swirled her hands through the pool of cum that was completely coating her breasts. Ren had paused as he enjoyed the sight of Chloe being drenched in cum while her pussy still quivered on his dick from her own orgasm, but Ren instantly began to slowly fuck her again once the show was over.

Chloe knew she didn't have much left but both males were extremely aroused now. Ren had been fucking her pussy for over an hour now and wanted to cum one last time. Dal on the other hand had cum much sooner than he expected, but having had a long break since his last night of sex, he was immediately ready to continue in hopes of giving himself one more climax before Chloe was spent. Neither male was willing to give in to the other and Chloe truly was nearing complete exhaustion. They looked at each other and without speaking a word knew that the best option was to both fuck her at the same time. It was going to be quite the feat considering the considerable size of both aliens and the ridiculous amount of cock that they would be stuffing into her. Ren knew that he was far too thick to be able to penetrate her anally, at least not at the same time. Dal was happy to take the challenge. Chloe on the other hand still was completely overwhelmed from the last few moments, so she had no idea what they were planning yet.

Ren kept fucking Chloe slowly while Dal turned to find the robe that Chloe had dropped onto the floor. He scooped it up and returned to the couch where he carefully wiped Chloe clean of his enormous cum bath from just a few minutes prior. Once clean Ren bent over, wrapped Chloe up in his huge arms and lifted her up into the air. He carried her in front of the couch. Dal slid behind Chloe's back and began to massage Chloe ass. Dal supported her weight just enough for Ren to slide his hands to Chloe's waist and lift her up and out away from his body about a foot so that just the end of his cock still rested inside of her. Ren told her to reach down and lift up her own legs and spread them wide by grabbing the back of her thighs. Chloe was so tired now that she just did as she was told without even thinking about it. That was when Dal grabbed his shaft and pushed the tip against her asshole. Chloe's eyes went wide and she whipped her head to the side to try and look at Dal.

"Dal! You're too big! I can't take you both at the same time!!!"

Chloe had only experienced anal sex a couple times before and neither partner was even half the size of either Ren or Dal.

Dal tried to reassure her. "Don't worry. We'll take turns."

That really was the truth. Ren and Dal combined were far too large to double penetrate Chloe at the same time. Dal swirled his tip against her ass for a few minutes to help Chloe prepare. He gripped one of Chloe's arms around her bicep as it reached back to hold up her own leg. Then he started pushing in. The fit was incredibly tight at first, but unlike the night before Chloe was able to relax and control her body. Soon Dal was able to insert himself a few inches in from behind. He worked in and out for a few minutes while Ren waited. Ren was ready to enjoy his last experience with Chloe but he didn't mind waiting that much. His view was nice as he held her up and watched her erotic responses to Dal's insertion. Eventually Dal was able to penetrate deep enough to satisfy himself even though he was no more than a 3rd of the way in. Dal now let go of his shaft and firmly held Chloe's other arm. Ren let him continue to slowly take his time with Chloe until he was finally too impatient. Ren began to plunge in as well. Chloe threw her head back and moaned as both dicks tightly plunged in. Dal relented and slid back to the tip and allowed Ren to take over for a few minutes. They continued that process for a short while. One would eagerly thrust in and out while the other waited rather impatiently until they could switch. After a short time they changed their technique. Neither one of them could stand to wait on the other, so they began to work together. As one would slide in the other would slide out. It was like two lumberjacks working together with a giant two man saw. They both enjoyed the feeling but even their combined pleasure came nowhere near what Chloe felt. The pace was slow but never the less, Chloe was almost completely overcome by the sensation. The sight was amazing as well. Chloe was practically floating in mid air between the two monsters, supported only by Ren's grasp on her waist and the two enormous dicks gliding back and forth. There was literally not a single second for Chloe where one of the two biggest dicks Chloe had ever even seen were not tightly pushing into her from either the front or the back. She was so overpowered by the sensation that she couldn't even move, she could barely breath as she gasped and moaned. Chloe didn't think it was possible but after several minutes she came again. Both monsters couldn't resist the temptation. They both thrust forward cramming both of their cocks deeply into Chloe until there was literally not a single millimeter of room left inside of her. Chloe nearly blacked out as she continued to orgasm on both huge cocks. The culmination of the experience simultaneously sent both males over the edge as well. Chloe screamed as Ren's cock pulsed deeply inside of her. Dal let go of both arms and dropped his hand to his sides. He leaned back and grunted wildly as his cum exploded inside of Chloe's ass. Seconds later Ren finished his first stage and began to deposit gigantic loads directly into Chloe's womb. She was filled to capacity almost instantly. Halfway through she couldn't take anymore, Chloe began to pass out. Ren had to tighten his grip to make sure she didn't fall over sideways as he and Dal finished releasing inside of her. They lasted for a couple minutes as cum gushed out of Chloe from the front and back. It thickly coated their shafts and spilled onto the floor.

Once finally finished, Dal gingerly pulled out and let Ren pull Chloe's now unconscious body close to his own as he unleashed his last few loads. Once complete Ren carried her over to the bed and softly laid her down, then covered her with light sheet. He then plopped down on the end of the bed to catch his own breath.

Time's Up

A few hours passed before Chloe woke. She slowly rose from her bed and took the blanket with her to cover her nude body from the cool air of the quite room. She saw Ren kneeling in the middle of the room again, in the same meditative state she had found him in the last time she woke up on the couch. He opened his eyes and looked up at her as he realized she was up and about.

"Is Dal gone?" Chloe asked. She was a little frustrated. Even though she had thoroughly enjoyed the last two days with Ren. She wanted to berate Dal for lying too her. She was still broke and none of her problems would be gone when she left.

"He is." Ren calmly answered.

Chloe knelt down and sat in front of Ren.

"Ren, why are you still here?" She tentatively asked.

Ren just looked at her for a moment. Chloe felt a twinge of guilt as she realized that the question may have sounded as though she didn't want him to be there. That wasn't true at all. Chloe didn't love him but she was already quite fond of Ren.

"I'm sorry...I...I didn't mean it like that. I just didn't expect anyone to still be around. Our time is up afterall...not that I have the energy for another round anyway." Chloe smiled as she said it, trying to let Ren know that she really meant it.

Ren didn't express it, but he was glad she had said it and he was also glad that she used the word "our" not "your" when referring to the last two days. He hoped that it meant she had enjoyed herself.

Ren then stood up and beckoned Chloe to follow him to the other side of the room. There was a small suitcase resting on top. He opened it and Chloe instantly recognized that it was full of her belongings from when she had been in the sky car. Ren told her to take the case to the bathroom so she could wash up and get dressed.

She returned nearly an hour later. She was once again wearing her tight leather pants, heels, and sexy blouse. Ren stared at her, still unable to fathom that she could look just as arousing then as she did completely naked. She walked over and sat next to Ren on the couch. She gave him a small peck on the cheek and said that she guessed it was time for her to leave. As she began to stand back up Ren reached out and held her arm, asking her to wait. Chloe sat back down with a curious look on her face.

"I have a couple things to tell you first."

"sure..." Chloe replied.

First Ren extended his hand and gave Chloe a note. It was from Dal and it read.

“Chloe,

Don't come crying back to me because I lied to you. I may not be honest ...but I'm not a liar. Check your bank account when you have the chance. You should notice a considerably larger balance. You have Ren to thank for half of that. Also, don't worry about those silly debts that you have been trying to pay off. I'll have someone pay them a visit and explain that their records must be mistaken.

Now, the other thing you are going to receive is more valuable than any of the above. I'm not too happy about it, so you better not ask me for anything for a long time....unless you want to fuck, we can do that anytime.

*Sincerely,
Dal-Sython”*

Chloe's eyes went wide and she put her hand over her mouth. She couldn't believe it...she was debt free for the first time in her adult life and apparently her bank account should be overflowing.

She looked at Ren and asked him what she was supposed to thank him for.

“He was going to give half of the money to me, I told him that you could have it all.” Ren explained.

“...but why Ren...it sounds like it must be a lot of money.”

“It is, but I don't need it and ...also because I have something to ask you. ...um...I want to come with you?”

Chloe couldn't believe it, was he being serious. Would Dal even let him leave? Chloe then realized that that must be what Dal was referring to at the end of the letter that he wasn't happy about.

Chloe stuttered and tried to respond, it was all too much for her to take in at once.

“Uhh...Ren..I...umm. Yeah! Are you sure!?! I mean...I would love for you to come with me, but I don't exactly have much...I mean...I guess we can make room on the ship for one more, it's not THAT small...” Chloe stopped, realizing that she sounded like a blithering idiot. She just looked at him silently for a moment. His face showed zero expression.

“Yes Ren, I would be happy for you to join me. My life is pretty lame, but I think a partner might just be the perfect thing to change my luck!” Chloe pecked him on the cheek again and stood up. She asked if he was ready to go. Ren told her that he was and that Dal would have his limited belongings sent to her ship. Ren walked to the automated door and held it open for Chloe. They left together and took Ren's personal sky car to Chloe's ship. Chloe watched through the window as the condo disappeared in the distance. She leaned her head against the glass and just tried to relax as she thought to herself that it was crazy how impossible it could be to predict the various outcomes of a single action.

Epilogue

“AH...AH...AH...AH...OH MY GOD...AHH...AHH...FUCK ME REN...AHH...AHH...FUCK MY PUSSY...AHH...AHHH”

It had been just over a week since Ren had joined Chloe on her small ship. The quarters were limited but Chloe had been able to make room for him in one of the medium sized storage rooms. They had to move some things around in other compartments, but it worked for now. Believe it or not, they had not had sex once until now. There was a period of awkward tension between them. Not in a bad way, they simply realized that they knew practically nothing about each other and since they were now partners, but not officially a couple. It was difficult for them to know where the boundaries should lie. Also, as much as they both wanted too...they both needed at least a few days to recover from their long first encounter.

After a week, Chloe decided that since it was her ship, she probably needed to take matters into her own hands... and mouth...and pussy.

That morning, she woke up extra early on purpose. Ren didn't sleep much, but he did tend to stay up late. So Chloe only had to get up a couple hours early in order to rise before him. She silently entered his room which was just beginning to fill with morning light through the single round window. Ren was lying on his back completely nude with his fat cock flopped up onto his stomach. Chloe couldn't believe her luck. She crawled to his side on her hands and knees as lightly as she could. Then Chloe leaned forward and began slowly licking from the base of his cock to the tip. After a few seconds it started to grow but Ren was still fast asleep. As it got harder Chloe lifted it up and gingerly stroked it with one hand while sucking on the tip. That is when Ren finally woke up. Chloe didn't even notice at first. He stayed still and just quietly looked down at her still trying to wrap his mind around how lucky he was. He could still hardly believe that he was sharing the same ship with the most beautiful woman he had ever seen and now he was waking up to see and feel her on her knees in his bead wearing nothing but high heels and black stockings and she was happily sucking on his dick.

Ren just laid motionless, watching Chloe pleasure him for nearly half an hour before he suddenly sat up and grabbed Chloe. She giggled and playfully screamed as he pulled her down and mounted her in the missionary position. He played with her breasts and stroked his cock for a few seconds before he plunged it deep inside of Chloe and began pounding her pussy hard and fast.

"AHHH...REN...AH...AH...MAKE ME CUM...MAKE ME SQUIRT ON YOUR COCK...AH...AH...AHHHHH...AH...AH...AH!!!"

Chloe was reaching back and grasping the bottom of the head board with both hands. Her tits bounced in time with her loud moans as Ren happily plunged his cock balls deep into her over and over.

That is when Chloe heard a familiar voice. "I told you that you big boobs would come in handy."

"OH MY GOD...MINNY...WHAT THE HELL ARE YOU DOING IN HERE!!!" Chloe screamed.

Ren was still fucking Chloe hard. "AHH...AH...REN...AHH...STOP PLEASE...AHH." Ren had a puzzled look but he did as Chloe asked. He didn't care if a robot was in the room.

Now able to talk without moaning every other word, Chloe berated the little robot. Until she noticed one more thing that made her even more furious. A little red light was blinking on the side of Minny.

"MINNY...ARE YOU RECORDING THIS!!!"

"Maybe..." Minny sheepishly responded. "We gotta make some money somehow. Plus, it's not like you haven't already made a sex tape."

"What are you talking about!?" Chloe asked completely exasperated.

"Yeah! You know. Last week, that live stream. While you were gone for a couple days. It's not like you could have forgotten. Ren was in it too. He totally fucked your brains out for like two whole days! You were squirtin all over the place and then at the end...that other dude came and they tagged teamed you until you blacked out. It was awesome!!!"

Chloe was completely dumbfounded. She had no idea what Minny was talking about...then it hit here like a wall.

"You have got to be kidding me!!! No wonder Dal was so willing to give us all that money! That dirty bastard recorded the whole thing and charged people to watch it online. It could have been seen by millions of people, he probably make 100 times what he paid us."

"Minny, you stop recording right now. If you don't delete every single video file that you have saved over the last two weeks...I'll take you apart in a hundred pieces and dump you into space."

The little red light instantly shut off and Minny zipped out into the hallway and disappeared for the next several hours.

Chloe flopped back onto the bed. She couldn't help but laugh out loud at the absurdity of the situation. She looked up and Ren. "Did you know about the video?" Ren calmly shook his head.

Chloe smiled at him.

"I'm not sure I believe you..." Ren just shrugged his shoulders and said nothing. "Well, I guess that makes us pornstars doesn't it. My mother would be sooo proud. In that case, I think we will need to get lots of practice, we have a reputation to uphold after all."

With that Ren leaned back in and pulled Chloe up close to his chest. They wrapped their arms around each other, both of them eager to continue the mornings previous "activity". They had plenty of time to worry about the latest consequences.
